“StarEdition” for Hymermobil B-SL and Hymer T-SL

Bad Waldsee, Germany, 16 January 2009

As the year 2009 gets off to a start, Hymer is presenting attractive special offer models to give fresh impetus to the market and to offer customers significant cost advantages. These will be available for a semi-integrated Hymer TS model and for selected integrated Hymermobil B-SL models.

An especially composed package of features has been put together to give the customer savings ranging between Euro 9,420 and 12,442, depending on model. The models involved are the Hymer T 674 SL StarEdition and the StarEdition version of the Hymermobil B 514 SL, B 614 SL and B 654 SL motorhomes.

Hymer T 674 SL “StarEdition”

The Hymer T 674 SL has a Fiat Ducato chassis with 2.3 M-Jet engine delivering 130 hp. The cab has a white paint finish and the side walls come in a champagne colour. In addition, there are attractive StarEdition decals also extending over the rear.

The cab of StarEdition models has rotary, height-adjustable club seats, driver/front passenger air bag, Fiat cruise control, power windows, central locking, an engine-operated air conditioning system with pollen filter, a dashboard with wood-finish trims and a concertina darkening system.

The living area is graced with the Havana style collection and features ambient lighting to complement the light system. The sleeping area with its twin beds at the rear has an added cushion and the seating area has the Easy Sleep system for quick conversion to form a bed.

As part of the StarEdition package, the kitchen has a TEC Tower 150-litre fridge/freezer and an oven with grill. The living-area door additionally has a mosquito net roll-up screen.

Putting the finishing touches to the StarEdition package are an Avic F900 satellite navigation system with reversing camera (colour rendition), radio/TV pre-installation including TFT mount and TFT 17-inch flat screen, loudspeakers and a digital Kathrein satellite antenna including receiver.

According to the manufacturer's recommended retail price, the Hymer T 674 SL StarEdition - including all the extra modules - costs only Euro 64,990 (a saving of Euro 9,420).

Hymermobile B 514 SL, B 614 SL and B 654 SL "StarEdition"

The B 514 SL, B 614 SL and B 654 SL models of the Hymermobil StarEdition offer customers even greater savings. These motorhomes have the Fiat AL-KO Ducato low frame chassis as their base with a 2.3 M-Jet engine delivering 130 hp.

They have an exclusive, all-champagne paint finish, including the outside mirrors, and attractive StarEdition decals also extending over the rear.

The cab comes with height-adjustable lounge seats, Fiat cruise control, power-adjustable and heated outside mirrors, engine-operated air conditioning system with pollen filter, a dashboard with wood-finish trims and a concertina darkening system.

The living area is enhanced with the Havana style collection and ambient lighting to complement the light system.

Other features of the StarEdition package are the TEC Tower 150-litre fridge/freezer and an oven with grill in the kitchen. The living-area door additionally has a mosquito net roll-up screen.

The StarEdition package additionally includes an Avic F900 satellite navigation system with reversing camera (colour rendition), radio/TV pre-installation including TFT mount and TFT 19-inch flat screen, loudspeakers and an Oyster 85 digital satellite antenna with CI receiver.

According to the manufacturer's recommended retail price, the Hymermobil B-SL StarEdition models - including all the extra modules - offer the following price advantages:

Hymermobil B 514 SL StarEdition: Euro 76,990 (a saving of Euro 11,162)

Hymermobil B 614 SL StarEdition: Euro 83,990 (a saving of Euro 12,442)

Hymermobil B 654 SL StarEdition: Euro 83,990 (a saving of Euro 12,442)
