

Special model featuring bicolour design: Hymer presents the Free 600 "Campus"

Bad Waldsee, 30 August 2019 – For Caravan Salon 2019, Hymer GmbH & Co. KG is adding a special model to its popular Free camper van model range. The Hymer Free 600 "Campus" on a Fiat chassis boasts a sporty bicolour paint finish and features numerous other equipment highlights.

In their search for adventure and freedom on their holidays, more and more people are discovering motorhoming. The compact design of camper vans like the Hymer Free makes them especially popular among newcomers to camping. For Caravan Salon 2019, a special model that goes by the name "Campus" is being added to the 600 layout of the Free model range.

Thanks to its modern paint finish featuring a sporty grey and black bicolour design, the Hymer "Campus" instantly catches the eye. The exterior's other striking design features include the matt, black 16" Fiat alloy rims and the glossy black radiator grille. The sporty exterior is complemented by the matt, black "Campus" design graphics. Featuring a polished silver effect and white locker doors, the interior of the special model has an open and bright appearance. Combined with the grey and brown upholstery and the colour-coordinated flooring, a homely atmosphere is created. Two decorative cushions and a handy utensil bag in the entrance area add the perfect finishing touches to the interior.

With a compact vehicle length of under six metres and a powerful Fiat Ducato chassis, the Hymer Free 600 "Campus" is the perfect companion for all camping fans. The comprehensive equipment package of the special model includes a 90-litre diesel tank, cruise control, as well as LED daytime running lights and fog lights. Thanks to its handy, black pop-top roof, the "Campus" can also accommodate up to four people. Extra safety for even the youngest camper van fans is ensured by an ISOFIX child seat mount for the bench seat in the living area. What's more, an anthracite-coloured awning adds to the whole luxury feel when you reach your destination.

The Hymer Free 600 "Campus" special model is available from dealers with immediate effect.
